5 Respondent in Propria Persona

J. 83-1446

7 SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

8 In the Matter of Disbarment of
9 SAMUEL MC MORRIS

No. D-396

10 } RESPONSE TO ORDER TO SHOW
11 } CAUSE

12 In response to the Court's Order to Show Cause in re dis-
13 barment, dated January 23, 1984, respondent respectfully shows:

14 I

15 On February 1, 1984, respondent mailed to the above entitled
16 Court his Petition for Writ of Certiorari to the Supreme Court
17 of the State of California, in the matter of petitioner's dis-
barment by the said Court.

18 II

19 A copy of the said Petition for Writ of Certiorari is here-
20 with submitted and incorporated by reference with the same force
21 and effect as if here set forth in full, and it is respectfully
22 requested that this Court take judicial notice thereof.

23 III

24 To the facts and points of argument set forth in the said
25 Petition for Writ of Certiorari, which points of argument are 26 herewith summarized, respondent adds hereinbelow additional
27 facts and points of law, as follows:

IV

2 It must be remembered, first of all, that respondent has
3 practiced this profession for nearly thirty years, one in Ohio,
4 twenty-nine in California; and until December 8, 1977, had never
5 been disciplined in any manner.

7 In the orders to show cause which led to the decision and
8 order of disbarment, respondent was not notified that disbarment
9 would be a possible outcome of the proceedings; and, as stated
10 in the Petition for Certiorari, respondent expected the discipline
11 to be, at most, suspension, or probation.

12

VI

13 Respondent has appeared in federal district courts in San 14 Diego, Los Angeles, Sacramento, Oakland, and San Francisco; has 15 appeared on appeals many times before the Ninth Circuit, and 16 three times before the Supreme Court of the United States; and 17 has had no problems with his federal practice.

18

VII

19 Even in the state courts, in thirty years of practice, re-
20 spondent has had no problem, no complaint, no discipline in con-
21 nection with his criminal practice, which constitutes 90% of 22 respondent's practice; and respondent respectfully submits that
23 a lengthy probation, conditioned on his limitation to criminal
24 practice and to payment to any injured civil clients, would do
25 justice to the Constitution, the courts, the public, and to re-
26 spondent.

27

VIII

28

-2-

1 Respondent will be eligible to apply for readmission to
2 the California bar after five years; and for good cause, the
3 board may shorten the time to as little as two years; and it
4 would be respondent's hope to apply in the said two years on
5 the basis of respondent's character, record of contributions,
6 and the unaggravated nature of the charges upon which respond-
7 ent's disbarment was based.

103

9 Respondent would hope, in the meantime, to remain in the 10 federal practice, to make himself available for court appoint-
11 ment for indigents on trial and appeal, and to limit himself
12 to criminal practice.

20

14 Respondent's admission to the Bar of this Court was based 15 on respondent's membership in the Ohio Bar as well as that of 16 California; that respondent remains a member of the Ohio Bar.

100

18 That because of the advanced age of respondent (sixty-four),
19 respondent would like the option of returning to his Ohio prac-
20 tice, rather than wait out the period before readmission is pos-
21 sible; and, because of respondent's constitutional approach to 22 the criminal law, hopes to be able to remain a member of the 23 Bar of this Court so as to be able to appeal thereto in such
24 possible Ohio practice.

25 Dated this 2d day of March, 1984.

~~James C. Morris~~

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 Disbarment or suspension in a state court does not ipso
3 facto deprive an attorney of his right to appear in the federal
4 courts. In re Ruffalo 390 US 544, 88 SCT 1222, 20 Led2d 117.

5 The federal courts must make their own determination of the 6 right of the attorney to continue as a member of the federal
7 bar, after giving consideration to the underlying record. In 8 Ex Thies 662 F2d 771, 213 US App DC 256.

9 They may draw inferences from facts and circumstances which
10 differ from those drawn by the states, emphasizing countervail-
11 ing federal considerations. In re Abrams 521 F2d 1094.

12 The federal court should not order disbarment where there
13 is a grave reason which convinces the federal court that to
14 allow the natural consequences of disbarment by the state court
15 to have their effect would conflict with the federal court's
16 duty not to disbar, except on the conviction that, under prin-
17 ciples of right and justice, it is constrained to do so. Theard
18 v USA 354 US 278, 1 LEd2d 1342, 77S Ct 1274.

19 Disbarment of attorney from practice before District Court
20 was discriminatorily severe. Association of the Bar of City
21 of New Yourk v Isserman 271 F2d 784.

Petitioner had no notice that his employment of Orlando would be considered a disbarment offense until after both petitioner and Orlando had testified. In re Buffalo 390 US 544.

25 A lawyer charged with misconduct in a disbarment proceeding
26 is entitled to procedural due process, which includes fair
27 notice of the charge. Id.
